

PADI® Open Water Diver Course 2009

To qualify as a PADI Open Water diver you will need to complete three elements - knowledge development; practice your skills in the comfort of a local swimming pool; make four open water dives over a period of two days.

For course schedules please see the reverse side of this sheet (courses at Bishop's Stortford).

Option 1 – Standard Open Water Referral

Knowledge development:

Your knowledge development can be completed by self-study using the manual followed by a review session and final quiz. All students will receive a materials pack containing a colourful manual, dive planner, log pages. We recommend for all students the PADI open water DVD at just £20.

Pool training:

You will complete a series of 4 or 5 pool sessions at a local swimming pool. Class sizes are small typically no more than three students to each Instructor.

Cost of the knowledge development & pool training £268 per student

Option 2 – Executive Referral

If you prefer, executive options are available. These are based on the self-study option where you attend three pool sessions with your personal instructor (four sessions for more than one student booking together) plus a knowledge development/final quiz session. Dates are arranged to meet your requirements.

Cost of the knowledge development & pool training (1 student) £299
(2 students) £269 per student
